

Plan Signage and Window Displays

Make the office easy to find without compromising trust.

MISSION BRIEF

Design clear, compliant signage that communicates the office identity and primary services while preserving visibility, safety, and a professional client experience.

FOUR OPERATING PRINCIPLES

Confirm permissions Review landlord, center, municipal, sign-code, permit, lighting, size, placement, and installation requirements before ordering.	Lead with the brand Make the legal or approved public business name readable and consistent with the office's identity.
Prioritize services Communicate only the most important offerings. Too many messages make the window harder to understand.	Protect visibility and trust Avoid blocking sightlines or covering the entire storefront. Use claims, pricing, and refund-related language carefully and accurately.
